

Summary of remote learning survey

Regarding the amount of work set in line with government expectation (3 hours at KS1 and 4 hours at KS2 approximately)
Not enough	Enough	Too much
6%	89%	5%

Regarding parents ability to cope with the workload of remote teaching whilst balancing their own parental and working responsibilities
Struggling	Occasionally Struggling	Usually coping
7%	32%	61%

Regarding the ease of navigating and using the learning platform on which the remote learning work is hosted (Purple Mash)
Difficult	Quite easy	Very easy
2%	30%	68%

Regarding how well explained / modelled the learning was
Poorly	Could be better	Sufficient	Very Well
1%	5%	43%	51%

Regarding the variety of subjects and tasks
Not enough	Some variety	A good variety
1%	14%	85%

Regarding the balance of screen and paper based activities
Not enough balance	Quite balance	A good balance
4%	30%	65%

Regarding parents ability to cope with the workload of remote teaching whilst balancing their own parental and working responsibilities
Struggling	Occasionally Struggling	Usually coping
7%	32%	61%

Regarding the challenges faced by parents/carers with delivering home learning.
No challenges / no answer provided	Child motivation	Balancing school/work/home	Devices	Maths	Other
38%	24%	19%	10%	7%	2%

Regarding things school has done particularly well
Clear and consistent	Zoom sessions	Teachers (personal attentiveness)	Feedback & contact	Variety of work set	No specific suggestions offered
23%	23%	11%	5%	5%	33%

Regarding improvements that could be made
Live lessons	Paper copies	Purple Mash (change to other)	Others (mentioned by one parent)
16 parents	3 parents	10 parents	More individual Praise More challenge Curriculum Transparency More exercise More practical tasks

Regarding Wellbeing: Parents noted a wish for more 1:1 interaction with teachers; more interaction with friends also learning at home; more 'fun' activities not on a screen; more printouts.

Additional comments: Better this time (than the first lock down); some optional work offered would have been an improvement; unfair for children at home; worries about catching up; less Twinkl power points; difficulties for working parents; and many, many thank yous!

